

Governor Biographies

Sarah Lee (Parent Governor)

Sarah is a parent of two children at St Paul's Catholic School and is strongly committed to supporting the school's continued success. She values St Paul's focus on academic excellence, pastoral care, and Catholic values, and often recommends the school within the community.

Professionally, Sarah is an Assistant Headteacher in a primary school in Bletchley, where she leads on pastoral care, mental health, wellbeing, and staff professional development. She is also the Year 6 Leader, Transition Lead, and curriculum lead for Art & Design Technology and PSHE. Her leadership experience has given her a strong understanding of effective school culture, strategic development, and pupil progress.

Sarah has completed NPQs in Leading Behaviour and Culture and Leading Teacher Development and is currently undertaking the NPQ for Headship. She is passionate about collaborative leadership and strengthening partnerships between schools, families, and the wider community. She is committed to supporting St Paul's in maintaining high standards and nurturing every student's potential.
