

Examinations Policy

Philosophy

The school's motto is to 'Love, Serve, Do the Best Possible.' It is therefore our philosophy that each child achieves their full potential for each child is a 'Gift from God.'

How we manage exams and prepare pupils for them sits within this framework. The expectation is that pupils will sit exams in which staff believe they can do well. Most pupils will sit examinations so that they are able to gain recognition for their learning.

Internal assessments and examinations:

- Most assessments will take place in the classroom. The conditions should be appropriate to the task.
- Departments should for internally administered assessments, adhere to the examination boards requests and follow the school's policy.
- Internal examinations will take place at a time suitable in the school year in order to build pupil resilience and stamina over time and to ensure that the examinations become increasingly 'authentic' to ensure pupils are 'exam ready' for external assessments. The timetable for these examinations is published to pupils and parents in advance.

Early entries:

At present, the school wishes to allow the maximum time for learning and we currently have no early entries for GCSE, other than native speaker Modern Foreign Language exams.

Public exams:

Most courses are now linear in design. Entry will be in the Summer examination session with the exception of retake GCSE courses at Post-16 and BTEC or other vocational qualifications where there is a 're-sit' opportunity.

Special needs:

Pupils with special educational or medical needs are identified, tested and supported by the SENCO. These pupils are given the support required by staff in the SEND department.
